APPLICANT INTRODUCTORY INFORMATION

All applicants for any position within the Rockdale County Sheriff's Office (RCSO) are required to successfully complete an intensive background investigation. This booklet contains numerous forms, questions and documents that must be signed and properly completed so the background investigation can be initiated.

The selection process may take up to three months due to the extensive number of hours that must be devoted to each applicant. Any applicant who fails to complete the required forms and supply proper documents may be removed from the process.

If any contact information has changed, an applicant must notify the RCSO's Office of Professional Standards (OPS) in writing of the updated contact information (i.e., mailing address, phone number(s), email address, etc.).

The Sheriff or his designee will be responsible for extending a job offer to the successful applicant(s). The Sheriff or his designee will be responsible for notifying all unsuccessful applicants by mail within 30 days of such decision.

The Rockdale County Sheriff's Office (RCSO) assures fair treatment of applicants and employees in all aspects of human resources administration. The RCSO does not discriminate against applicants or employees based on political affiliation, race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, age, ethnic/national origin, religion or disability, and shall ensure a work environment free of intimidation and harassment.

It is the intent of the RCSO to ensure the most highly qualified candidates are identified and selected for employment and advancement, regardless of political affiliation, race, creed, gender, sexual orientation, age, ethnic/national origin, religion or disability.

APPLICANT: DO NOT CONTACT THE RCSO TO OBTAIN A STATUS IN THE SELECTION PROCESS - THE RCSO WILL CONTACT EACH APPLICANT.

APPLICANT PROCESS BOOKLETS MUST BE RETURN BY MAIL OR IN PERSON TO THE FOLLOWING:

Rockdale County Sheriff's Office

Main #: 770-278-8000

Attn: Office of Professional Standards (OPS)
911 Chambers Drive, Conyers, Georgia 30012

Before completing the applicant processing booklet, an applicant should carefully read the job description to ensure he/she is both qualified and committed to the requirements of the position for which he/she is applying.

APPLICANT SELECTION PROCESS

Applicants shall successfully complete each step of the selection process to advance to the next step in the selection process. If for any reason, an applicant voluntarily withdraws from the process or fails to successfully satisfy any step of the process and decides to re-apply at a later date, he/she shall be required to begin at Step 1; and will not be allowed to start at the point where they were previously withdrawn, voluntarily or involuntarily.

Applicants who are not currently certified as a Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training (P.O.S.T.) Council Certified Officer through P.O.S.T. shall provide successful P.O.S.T. entrance exam results, prior to submitting an application for employment for any certified deputy position. Exam results that are accepted include the following: ASSET, COMPASS, SAT, ACT and CPE.

If an applicant is applying for a Detention Deputy II or III position, or a Certified Sheriff's Deputy II or III position, he/she shall meet all the requirements outlined in the RCSO's Compensation Incentive Plan policy. The applicant shall be compliant with P.O.S.T. training requirements prior to submitting the APB.

STEP 1: ONLINE APPLICATION:

Persons wishing to apply for any position within the RCSO shall complete an online application on the Rockdale County website (www.rockdalecountyga.gov).

Once the application has been submitted successfully online, all applications for open RCSO positions are submitted to the RCSO's Office of Professional Standards (OPS). The OPS will maintain contact with all applicants who have been selected as a candidate for employment until such time there is a final employment decision. Applicants are defined as those persons selected to proceed past Step 1.

All applications shall be reviewed by the OPS for accuracy, completeness and eligibility. Only completed applications and those that meet the minimum qualifications for the position will be evaluated for advancement in the selection process.

STEP 2: RCSO APPLICANT PROCESSING BOOKLET (APB):

Applicants who have been chosen to proceed beyond Step 1 of the selection process shall be provided with the RCSO Applicant Processing Booklet (APB) along with instructions on how to complete the APB. It shall be the sole responsibility of the applicant to return the APB to the RCSO's OPS with all required documentation.

The completed APB and a copy of the below items must be returned no later than 10 business days from the date the APB is provided to the applicant. One copy of the following shall be submitted with the APB:

1. Certified copy of birth certificate (Note: if born outside the U.S., provide naturalization papers and certified copy of birth certificate);
2. Copy of high school diploma or a GED with the GED transcripts/GED scores;
3. Copy of current driver's license, reflecting current home address;
4. Copy of social security card;
5. Official, sealed transcripts of any/all college/university degrees, certificates or diplomas;
6. Certified copy of DD 214 Member 4 copy/long form (if any active military service);
7. Court disposition documents and/or police reports of any major court cases in which the applicant is currently or was personally involved (Including, but not limited to: bankruptcy, lawsuits, etc.);
8. One full credit report;
9. Two color passport photographs. Note: A passport is NOT required. Passport photos may be made at many local pharmacies' or retail stores' photo labs;
10. A list of all personal on-line social media sites/accounts and user names;
11. A P.O.S.T. fact sheet - if applicable to the position the candidate is applying - do not submit individual certificates;
12. For Detention Deputy positions only - successful P.O.S.T. entrance exam results (i.e., SAT, ACT, COMPASS, etc.);
13. If applicant has held a driver's license from a state other than Georgia within the past seven years - An uncertified copy of his/her driving history shall be submitted; and,
14. Using the Reference Questionnaire on the last pages of this booklet – three references as outlined on page 23 of this booklet.

If the applicant believes any of the above listed items cannot be provided within the required 10 business days (i.e., official college transcripts, etc.), the applicant should make the OPS aware that copies have been requested, and notify OPS which documents are expected to be submitted late.

All fields in the APB shall be completed and all forms requiring signatures (including Notary Public signatures) within the APB shall be completed. The applicant cannot proceed to Step 3 until a completed APB has been submitted to the OPS. A review of the APB shall be conducted by the OPS to determine if the APB meets the guidelines for employment. If the APB does not meet the guidelines, the applicant shall be removed from the selection process and shall not proceed to Step 3.

STEP 3: CRIMINAL AND DRIVER HISTORY:

The OPS shall use the consent forms from the APB to generate a criminal history via the Georgia Crime and Information Center (GCIC) computer and a driver's history from the state of Georgia. If the applicant's criminal and driver's history meets the requirements set by P.O.S.T. and by the RCSO, he/she shall proceed to Step 4.

STEP 4: PHYSICAL FITNESS ASSESSMENT:

(For Deputy Sheriff and Detention Deputy Positions)

The RCSO may utilize a Physical Fitness Assessment that complies with current law and follows modern law enforcement best practices. Physical Fitness Assessments are not required for civilian positions.

STEP 5: TRUTH VERIFICATION EXAMINATION:

All applicants at Step 5 shall be scheduled for and administered a polygraph examination by a trained, certified polygraphist. Upon successful completion of Step 5, the applicant shall proceed to Step 6.

All applicants shall be provided with a list of areas from which polygraph questions will be drawn, prior to such examination. No applicant shall be disqualified from appointment based solely on the results of the polygraph examinations. The polygraph examinations shall be used only as an investigative aid.

STEP 6: BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION / VERIFICATION OF INFORMATION:

Background investigations shall be completed by the OPS to verify information listed on the application. The OPS background investigator shall verify all information provided in the APB. The background investigation may include, but not limited to, the following:

1. Review of criminal, civil and driving records, if any;
2. Verification of selective service registration, if applicable;
3. Verification of applicant's qualifying credentials (education, experience, etc.);
4. Interview of previous employers, and, if applicable and allowable by law, review of personnel files of applicant's previous employment with any government agency;
5. Interview of a minimum of three personal references;
6. Review of personal credit history;
7. Review of on-line social media sites, if any; and,
8. Face-to-face interviews with neighbors who reside near the applicant's residence, when feasible. Telephone interviews, in lieu of face-to-face interviews, with neighbors who reside near the applicant's residence may be required for out-of-area applicants.

The background investigation/verification of information process is extensive and time-consuming, and can be lengthy. It should be noted the background investigation will be an ongoing process and applicants may be scheduled for other selection testing even though the background investigation may still be in-progress. The background investigation may continue after the person has begun working for the RCSO, throughout his/her probationary period. The OPS personnel conducting background investigations shall attach a written report of findings and recommendations to the applicant's file.

STEP 7: APPLICANT REVIEW BOARD (ARB):

The applicant shall be scheduled for a panel review before the Applicant Review Board (ARB). The applicant shall be required to respond to a series of questions before a panel that is comprised of no less than three current RCSO employees. All information collected in Step 1 through Step 6 of the selection process shall be made available to the ARB for review.

During the ARB, applicants may be subject to being questioned regarding, but not limited to, the following:

1. Information provided in the APB;
2. Initial application;
3. Education;

4. Experience;
5. Decision making ability;
6. Ability to communicate;
7. Presence, appearance;
8. Information in any previous employment personnel files; and,
9. Personal and professional goals and objectives.

Each panel member shall rate the candidate on a scoring sheet based on the interview. If the members of the ARB recommend the applicant continue in the selection process, he/she shall proceed to Step 8.

STEP 8: CONDITIONAL JOB OFFER:

Upon successful completion of Step 1 through Step 7, and upon completion of the background investigation with no disqualifying information discovered, the OPS shall prepare a report and recommendation of the applicant and shall forward such recommendation to the Sheriff or his designee. The report submitted to the Sheriff/designee shall be a summary report on the applicant. The OPS shall provide the complete applicant file to the Sheriff/designee for review.

The Sheriff/designee shall review all information received in the applicant file. The Sheriff/designee may extend the conditional job offer via face-to-face interview, by telephone or by written letter.

STEP 9: PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAM/EVALUATION:

The applicant shall successfully complete an emotional stability and psychological fitness examination. All psychological examinations/evaluations shall be conducted and assessed by a qualified professional licensed psychologist, designated by the RCSO, prior to appointment to probationary status. The results shall be closely scrutinized prior to final appointment of any and all applicants.

Applicants who are given a "not recommended" rating for employment by the designated professional psychologist shall be eliminated from the selection process and shall not proceed to Step 10. If an applicant is withdrawn from the selection process for not meeting the minimum requirements of Step 9, the applicant shall not be eligible to re-apply for a position with the RCSO.

STEP 10: MEDICAL EXAMINATION AND DRUG SCREEN:

The applicant shall successfully complete a physical examination and drug screen to be conducted by a designated physician approved by the RCSO. The physical examination and drug screen shall be arranged by the OPS. The medical examination shall be conducted, prior to appointment to probationary status, to certify the general health of each candidate for certified deputy and detention deputy positions.

The designated physician shall recommend the applicant for hire prior to the applicant proceeding to Step 11. If the designated physician does not recommend the applicant for hire, the applicant shall be removed from the selection process. If an applicant is withdrawn from the selection process for not meeting the minimum requirements of Step 10, the applicant shall not be eligible to re-apply for a position with the RCSO.

STEP 11: APPROVED JOB OFFER:

Once Step 1 through Step 10 of the selection process have been successfully completed, the RCSO will notify the applicant of the following: 1) The final approval of employment; 2) The start date and reporting time for employment; and, 3) The person the applicant shall report to on his/her start date.

All selection process elements that require evaluation and/or scoring shall be evaluated and/or scored by uniform procedures established prior to administration of the selection process. The OPS shall provide specific information regarding scoring, evaluation and interpretation of elements of the selection process to any candidate requesting such information.

When time limits are established for completion of any element of the selection process, all candidates shall be informed prior to administration of that element. All elements of the selection process shall use only those rating criteria or minimum qualifications that are job related. Candidates not selected for positions shall be informed in writing.
